

First case: the origin of the charger coordinate system is at the center of the charger.

Second case: Using a "Transform", the origin of the charger coordinate system is not at the center of the charger.